Stage 1. Clean
Water flows through the coarse screen and fine screen.

Stage 2. Dirty
Debris builds on the inside of the screen until 7 psid is reached on the differential pressure gauge.

Stage 3. Point-of-Suction Backwash
The flush valve opens, creating a low pressure path for the suction nozzles to vacuum the debris from the screen.